Re: Princeton Alternative Income Fund, LP, Debtor
Case No. 18-14603 (MBK)

Dear Judge Kaplan:

This firm represents the above-referenced debtors and debtors in possession. This Court has scheduled an evidentiary hearing on the Debtors' motion relating to confidentiality issues ("Motion") for May 12, 2018 at 1:00 p.m.

We wish to advise the Court and interested parties that the Debtors plan to call Jack Cook and Walt Wojciechowski as witnesses at the hearing. They are expected to testify regarding the need to maintain the confidentiality of certain information in these cases, including the Debtors' customer and investor lists, documents that were produced in accordance with the Confidentiality Order entered in the pending JAMS arbitration, and other commercially sensitive information; the Debtors' contractual obligations relating to confidentiality; the actions the Debtors have taken to preserve confidentiality; and the Debtors' response to any objection asserted by a party-in-interest to the Motion and the relief requested therein.

Very truly yours,

VALERIE A. HAMILTON
